

Happy Valentine's Day!

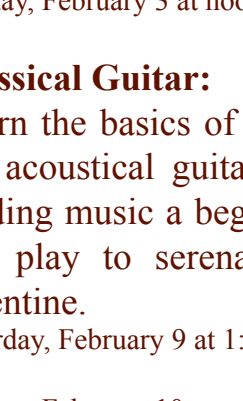

February is for lovers! So this month we are featuring two guitars you are bound to love, at prices you will find irresistible:

The Fender

Stratocaster is the electric guitar design that changed the world. New features include a tinted neck, parchment pickguard and control knobs, and a '70s-style logo. Includes select alder body, 21-fret maple neck with your choice of a rosewood or maple fretboard, 3 single-coil pickups, vintage-style tremolo, and die-cast tuning keys. This guitar features a thicker bridge block for increased sustain and a more stable point of contact with the strings. At this low price of $489.30, why play anything but the real thing?

The Fender

Precision bass guitar delivers the sound, look, and feel today's bass players demand. This bass features that classic P-Bass old-school design. Each Precision bass boasts contemporary features and refinements that make it an excellent value. Featuring an alder body and a split single-coil pickup, this classic electric bass guitar lives up to its Fender legacy. Special Price for February: $559.99.
